

REGEN PROJECTS

Portela, Katerina. "There are so many reasons to pop out with your kin this month. Let these art and fashion drops be your guide." Los Angeles Times, Drip Index (October 31, 2025) [online]

Los Angeles Times

There are so many reasons to pop out with your kin this month. Let these art and fashion drops be your guide

Marilyn Minter at Regen Projects

Marilyn Minter, Lizzo Odalisque 2023-2025. Enamel on metal. Artwork dimensions: 60 x 96 x 2 inches (152.4 x 243.8 x 5.1 cm). (Photo from Marilyn Minter)

Marilyn Minter, powerhouse of the modern stylized portrait, presents her fourth solo show with Regen Projects. Minter's large portraits hook the viewer with a familiar face, be it Nick Cave or Lizzo, in rambunctious laughter, or a sultry gaze, in a brilliant enamel painting technique that blends a soft, hazy blur with the bold, saturated features of diverse figures. In addition to featuring icons, Minter's show takes a decidedly political perspective, reckoning with the symbols of white-hooded terror from artist Philip Guston's KKK paintings as she draws parallels with modern MAGA hats. Spirited, yet tense, Minter's exhibition is begging to be discussed. Open at Regen Projects through Dec. 20. 6750 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles. regenprojects.com